Client Acknowledgement

At the legal clinic today, a volunteer attorney will provide me brief advice and information on my legal issue free of charge. I understand that the attorney who advises me today will NOT provide ongoing legal assistance. I understand that I would need to pass eligibility screening and enter a separate written agreement if the attorney I meet today – or any other attorney who volunteers to assist me – were to provide further legal assistance.

If I meet with a volunteer attorney today, I agree that that attorney’s law firm may now, or in the future, represent my opposing party – but not on this case. However, anything I tell the attorney today is privileged and confidential. I agree that my information may be shared with others as appropriate to assist me in this matter.

For Informational Purposes Only

LegalCORPS can provide volunteer attorneys to fully assist small businesses for non-litigation matters, but it must apply income guidelines for such help.

In the Minneapolis/St. Paul metropolitan area, LegalCORPS can assist business owners whose income ranges from $40,250 a year for households of 1 to $75,900 for households of 8.

Would it be likely that your annual income would make you eligible for full representation by a LegalCORPS volunteer attorney? YES ___ NO ___
